

TALKING BLACK IN AMERICA

Thursday, November 9th
7:30pm in Caldwell Lounge

Free and open to the public

Featuring footage and interviews with people across the country, Talking Black in America showcases the history and symbolic role of language in the lives of African Americans and highlights its tremendous impact on the speech and culture of the United States. Runtime 66 minutes

Q+A with linguist KellyNoel Waldorf to follow

For more information visit talkingblackinamerica.org

